

AMERICAN STUDIO ARTICULATING LEVER AND FULCRUM LAMP

Description

American Studio Craft articulating table lamp in a lever and fulcrum form, executed in walnut and with a beige linen shade. The arm, punctuated by a sculptural void, moves on a single axis, able to be raised or lowered, and the shade is fully adjustable via a ball joint. Likely a one-off design, artist presently unknown. 1960s.

20 h x 27 w x 4 d, 6.5 w base

Condition: good, age appropriate wear

$4,500